

U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission

amarel.taylorcott@yandex.com

Received:	Feb 6, 2017 2:33 AM
Expires:	May 7, 2017 1:33 AM
From:	norbergj@sec.gov
To:	amarel.taylorcott@yandex.com
Cc:	whartonn@sec.gov
Subject:	SMAIL Re: Request For Update RE: Adjudication

Mr. Amarel,

We have your award claim and will process it as efficiently as possible. Please know that yours is a newer claim and it will take some time to review. I tell you this to set your expectations so that you can relax a bit and seek help if you need it for your own health.

Rest assured that we will inform you when a Preliminary Determination is issued with respect to your claim.

Take care,

Jane Norberg

Sent from my iPad

> On Feb 4, 2017, at 2:09 AM, TAYLOR SCOTT AMAREL <amarel.taylorcott@yandex.com> wrote:

>

> Ms. Norberg and Ms. Wharton,

>

> In relation to my pending claims before the SEC's Whistleblower Office and in furtherance to my previous correspondence please take immediate action to adjudicate my claim for an award.

>

> The continued delays and unknowns associated with waiting are not conducive of a healthy life and I regularly think about suicide. In fact, most days I fall asleep thinking about killing myself because it is the only thing that takes my mind off the ongoing fraud and continued harassment.

>

> Please make a decision within thirty days. If you issue an award I will be happy with my contribution. If you do not issue an award I will be content and I will dedicate the rest of my life towards volunteering in third world countries. I have already chosen multiple WOFO farms and similar programs to volunteer in.

>

> Please let me know as soon as possible. Delaying the inevitable only causes more harm.

>

> Warmest Regards,

> Taylor Scott Amarel
>
> --
> Securely sent with Tutanota. Claim your encrypted mailbox today!
> <https://tutanota.com>
>
>

This message was secured by ZixCorp(R).

Secured by  zixcorp